

Learning a New Song

(and seeking to understand it)

What is the name of the song? _____

Why do you think they named it that? _____

Who wrote the song? _____

What do you know about that person? _____

What is the time signature? _____

How fast or how slow does the song go? _____

What does the song remind you of? _____

What picture does it give you in your head? _____

If you can tell, what is the song form? _____

Grab a pencil and mark these things in your music:

Where are there changes in the song to the mood? Write descriptive words in your music.

Where are there changes in the song to the rhythm?

If you can, highlight the main theme of the song.

Where does or should the song slow down?

Where does it speed up? Or does it stay the same tempo the whole time?

Other thoughts or things to write down:
